City Celebrates Grand Opening & Friday Nights Uptown

On Friday, May 29, 2015, the City of Marysville, Ohio will host a fun-filled day of entertainment at Partners Park (125 East Sixth Street) for the parks grand opening and for the first Friday Nights Uptown event of the season. The celebration will kick-off at 2:00 p.m. featuring Charlie Tatman, who mixes rock and roll and country music into his own style of southern and country rock. At 4:00 p.m., the Marysville Cabaret Troupe takes the stage. The troupe includes performers from Marysville High School's various music programs including the Swingers Unlimited and 2015 Monarch Idol contestants.

The Partners Park Grand Opening Ceremony will begin at 6:00 p.m. with the singing of the National Anthem, followed by opening remarks and recognition of our park partners by Mayor John Gore. Additional speakers include United States Congressman Jim Jordan and Deputy Mayor Toru Ibe, from our Friendship City, Yorii-Machi, Japan. We are also privileged to have Jiro Namiki and Yuki Otani of Yorii's General Policy Section attend this special event.

Friday Nights Uptown, presented by Bob Chapman Ford, will follow the grand opening ceremony from 6:15 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Highlights include:

- Music by Angelo Snyder and McGuffey Lane
- Twenty-six vendors
- Kids area including 2 bounce houses and numerous activities
- Splash pad
- Food vendors: Uptown Steakhouse, Crowbar & Grill, D & S Kettle Corn, D's Ultimate Dogs, Fat Boys Concessions, Adler's Fudge, Hill's Concessions, Kona Ice, Miller's Ice Cream, Ned's Concessions, P-Nuts, Chicken & More, Dan's Deli
